Interprofessional work in rehabilitation and HIV

Mildmay Hospital is running a study day on 20 May about how to employ the skills of diverse professionals for the benefit of patients. The interdisciplinary approach used by Mildmay allows professionals to adapt their skills, knowledge and responsibilities to fit in with other members of the team to achieve a common goal.

For further details, contact The Training and Resource Centre, Mildmay UK, Hackney Road, London E2 7NA. t: 020 7613 6314 or e: education@mildmay.org.

STAR Workshops and Seminars for children's leaders

STAR courses are run throughout the year by the Diocesan Children's Adviser to help children's leaders brush up on the basics, acquire new skills and increase confidence in the work they're doing with children. All courses are £5 per person.

Back Basics: A morning for anyone working with under-11s. The morning will include child development and its implications for how we plan our sessions, and practical workshops. Saturday 7 May at St Francis' Church, Isleworth, 10.00–13.00.

Challenging Behaviour: An evening to think through the issues surrounding the challenging behaviour of some children. Thursday 12 May at Christchurch, Roxeth, 19.30–21.15, and Tuesday 17 May at St Silas' Church, Pentonville, 19.30–21.15.

Using the Bible with Children: An evening of practical ideas for opening up the Bible with under-11s. Thursday 16 June at St Paul's Church, Brentford, 19.45–21.15.

Starting from Scratch: An evening to look at the practicalities of starting a Sunday group from scratch, including resources, creating sacred space and session planning. Wednesday 22 June at London Diocesan House, 19.00–20.30.

Godly Play Taster Sessions: An introduction to this Montessori-based way of presenting the Christian faith to children. Tuesday 14 June at All Hallow's, Greenford, 19.30–21.15, and Wednesday 6 July at St Paul's Church, Hammersmith, 19.45–21.30.

Godly Play Desert Stories: An opportunity for people already using Godly Play to practice and explore the desert stories. Wednesday 29 June at London Diocesan House, 19.00–20.30.
