

© UNHCR/K. McKinsey/July 2004

“I was a strangerdid you invite me in?”

an opportunity to explore
'Faith in Asylum: a Christian Response'
prior to Refugee Week
at a time when refugees and asylum-seekers are confronted by increasingly stringent policies and procedures

Programme:

Discussion with Caroline
Moorehead, author of:
“Human Cargo- A journey
among refugees”

- Speakers from Churches Refugee Network (CRN), Enabling Christians in Serving Refugees (ECSR) & concerned organisations
- Worship and spirituality
- Workshops led by Christian agencies working with refugees & asylum-seekers

Saturday May 28th 2005 11am to 4.30pm

Coffee & registration from 10.30am
£15 Registration fee (for concessions see below)
Bring your own lunch – coffee, tea & juice provided

St Alban's Centre

Baldwin's Gardens, London EC1
(off Gray's Inn Road)
The Centre is next to St Alban the Martyr Church
(nearest tube: Chancery Lane – 250 yards)
Further Details from Chris Brice, 0207 932 1121

Costs: £15 if funded by organisation; £10 individuals; £2- £5 students and unwaged; Free to refugees and asylum-seekers
Cheques made payable to 'United Reformed Church' (write 'Refugee event' on reverse of cheque)

Name:.....

Address:.....

.....

Telephone:..... email:.....

Please return to Wendy Cooper, Church and Society, United Reformed Church, 86 Tavistock Place, London W1CH 9RT
Phone: 0207 916 8632; Fax: 0207 916 2021 E-mail: wendy.cooper@urc.org.uk

Please tick inside the brackets if you do NOT want CRN and ECSR to retain your contact details ()