JULY 2005

An Award for Your Church: Ecclesiastical Architects' & Surveyors' Association

Does the recent or current work on your Church or Chapel deserve an Award? If so, contact your architect or surveyor and get them to enter the project for either The King of Prussia's Gold Medal Award or for The President's Award.

The King of Prussia Gold Medal Award goes each year to a scheme of church repair which is judged to have most successfully overcome the greatest aesthetic or technical challenge and the President's Award for the best example of new work, reordering, alteration, extension or new building in a Church of England church.

Entry forms can be obtained from The Secretary, Ecclesiastical Architects' and Surveyors' Association, 453 Glossop Road, Sheffield S10 2PT. The deadline for submissions is 8 September.

Vacancies at Terrys Cross

Terrys Cross retirement home at Woodmancote, near Henfield in West Sussex has vacancies for retired clergy, retired licensed lay church workers and their dependants. Two single bed-sitting rooms are available, with en-suite facilities, all meals provided and superb views over the South Downs. Regular bus services pass the door. Current fees are around £750 per calendar month.

If you know of someone who may qualify and needs accommodation, please contact the warden (t: 01273 493172) for a brochure and full details or write to The Warden, Terrys Cross House, Brighton Road, Woodmancote, Henfield BN5 9SX.

Scam email warning

Clergy are reminded to treat emails notifying of prize wins with suspicion. In particular, emails regarding 'Euro Lottery International', a known scam, are currently being circulated.

Holy Orders and the Completeness of the Church

This is a new book by Dr H J M Turner, Honorary Assistant Priest at St Botolph without Bishopsgate. In his foreword, Bishop Kallistos Ware says that the author 'revisits familiar questions, but from a fresh and genuinely constructive viewpoint'. Available for £14.99 from Melrose Books (t: 01353 646608 or e: sales@melrosebooks.com).

Clergy research project – spiritual direction and psychotherapy

Jane Bingham is currently undertaking a PhD, based at Anglia Polytechnic University, researching how clergy in the Anglican Church think and feel about God.

If you are a male stipendiary priest, who is currently receiving spiritual direction, and/or in psychotherapy; and if you would be willing to take part in 2/3 interviews, she would be pleased to hear from you. Confidentiality is assured at all stages of enquiry and participation, and the project has been approved by the Ethics Committee of APU. For more information, please contact Jane Bingham, t: 01702 558969 or e: j.s.bingham@apu.ac.uk.
