

Photo: Courtesy of The National Archives

“School for Crime!”

Enrol today! – and find out how you can get to prison by the fastest possible route – mandatory qualification for Prisons' Week 2005

- Half day Saturday School introduced by: Gayle Hunnicutt, Actress (& member of London Shakespeare Workout Prison Project Executive Committee)
- School Assembly led by: Prof. Richard Wilkinson, author of “The Impact of Inequality”, which describes how inequality and low social status cause social breakdown, increased violence, and poor health

Experiential lessons in:

- Creative Writing & Drama ‘from prison’
- A day in the life of a prisoner...
- Spirituality for a prisoner’s friend
- How to be excluded from Society..

Saturday
October 29th 2005
10am to 1.00 pm
Coffee, croissants & registration from 9.30am
£5 Registration fee

St Saviour’s Church
Walton Place SW3
(nearest tube Knightsbridge – behind Harrods)

Further Details from Chris Brice, 0207 932 1121

£5 registration: Cheques made payable to ‘London Diocesan Fund’ (write ‘Prisons event’ on reverse of cheque)

Name.....

Address:.....

.....

Telephone:..... email:.....