

Friday 24th March 2006 Pimlico, London

Can children and adults truly worship together?

Don't we have to dumb down the liturgy if children are involved?

Do children and young people have gifts and ministries that can be offered in worship?

A unique opportunity to hear Caroline Fairless and Jim Simms talk about fully including children in the worshipping community. Details of their work can be found at:

Caroline was also formerly Vicar of Holy Family Church, Half Moon Bay, California. Their insights into how congregations can become fully inclusive of all ages will challenge and inspire you.
