

Sex and the City of God.

Is sex just a commodity like any other in our world today?

Or does it have a particular role in helping to bring about God's Kingdom, here, on Earth?

St Pancras Church, Euston Road, will host a series of five talks to consider the role of sex in God's City.

Wednesdays in Lent from 5.30pm to 6.30pm:

March 8th

Cities and Desire: Revd Dr Graham Ward, Professor of Contextual Theology and Ethics at the University of Manchester, author of CITIES OF GOD, will open our series.

March 15th

Richard Jenkins, General Secretary of Affirming Catholicism, will talk on Same Sex Relationships in the City of God.

March 22nd

Sister Rosemary CHN will talk on Sex and Celibacy.

March 29th

Revd Charles Pickstone will give an illustrated talk on Sex, Art and the City of God.

April 5th

Revd Dr Thaddeus Birchard, Psychosexual Counsellor and Psychotherapist will talk on Responsible Sexuality in Today's World

Talks will begin at 5.30pm. Coffee and tea will be served afterwards
