

A CONFERENCE ORGANISED BY 'CHANGING ATTITUDE LONDON'
for lesbian, gay, bisexual & transgender Christians, friends and relatives

“Caught in the Crossfire”

A Safe Space to explore the ways in which we feel caught between life in an increasingly affirming secular society and the troubled atmosphere of the Church of England: identifying the resources to help us thrive in this context, celebrating our God-given identity

Programme:

• Keynote Speakers:

Ben Summerskill
Chief Executive Stonewall

Kathy Galloway
Leader of the Iona Community

• Contributions from:

Clare Herbert, Rector St Anne's Soho
John Ward, General Synod Lay Member

• Workshops:

healing our image of God; insights from psychology; laughter; spiritual resources; working for change in the church; singing for fun; working for political change; transperspectives

Saturday

13th January 2007

St Anne's Church Soho

Dean Street, W1

(Close to Piccadilly & Leicester Square Tube Stations)

10am to 4.30pm

Cost : £20 (£10)

Bring your own lunch – drinks provided

Further Details :

01276 24893 or brenda.harrison@ntlworld.com

www.changingattitude.org.uk

Cost : £20 (£10 for low incomes) : Cheques payable to 'Changing Attitude Trust' (write 'Crossfire event ' on the back)

Name.....

Address:.....

Telephone:..... email:.....

Please return to Brenda Harrison, 1 Titchborne Close, Frimley, Camberley, Surrey GU16 5RP
Tel: 01276 24893 E-mail: brenda.harrison@ntlworld.com