By Glen Berger
Directed by Maria Mileaf

"A GRIPPING PRODUCTION...a Da Vinci Code maze of clues and speculations. A sublime performance"
New York Times

"A spellbinding performance...the kind of provocative theatre experience that echoes well after the play has ended"
Daily Tribune, New York

Would you recognise a miracle if you saw one?

An ancient myth is unlocked when a small town librarian embarks on a quest to find out who anonymously returned a book, 113 years overdue. A clue scribbled in the margin and an unclaimed dry-cleaning ticket takes us on a magical adventure that spans the globe and the ages.

Underneath the Lintel tells the humorous, moving and profound story of one man's journey of self-discovery.

Richard Schiff, best known for his Emmy Award winning role as the Communications Director Toby Ziegler, in the TV series The West Wing, stars in this hit play.
