

EVENTS
APRIL 2007

Light from Light – Icons from Mount Athos

An exhibition and icon painting course at Sacred Space Gallery, St John's Notting Hill. Full details available at www.london.anglican.org/EventShow_7378. Visit www.sacredspacegallery.com for more information, or t: 020 8969 7492.

Making our Mark – Walk of Witness

Lambeth is to host thousands of people from across the country as they join the Archbishops of Canterbury and York for an historic event taking place at Kennington Park on Saturday 24 March to mark the Bicentenary of the Act for the Abolition of the Slave Trade.

The walk begins at Whitehall Place at 11.30am on 24 March. Please see www.london.anglican.org/NewsShow_7133 for more information.

Freedom Then Freedom Now – The Spital Sermon 2007

Richard Reddie, Project Director of 'Set all free' will give this year's Spital Sermon at Christ Church Spitalfields on Tuesday 3 April at 7pm. The Spital Sermons were given in Spitalfields from 1300 until 1660. 2007 sees the second in a new series of 'Spitalfields Sermons'

Entry is free and donations of £5 at the door are welcomed. Doors open 6.20pm. To reserve seats e: admin@christchurchspitalfields.org.uk.

Easter Eggstravaganza at Lambeth Palace

Jane Williams is hosting a spectacular 'Easter Eggstravaganza' in the gardens of Lambeth Palace to raise funds for The Children's Society. This is an event for all the family and there will be an Easter trail to find out more about the meaning of Easter, special Easter guests and a variety of activities to entertain children throughout the afternoon. Children will also receive a complimentary goody bag on arrival and refreshments will be available on the day. All monies raised from this event will benefit the work of The Children's Society.

31 March 2007, 2-4pm. Tickets are £12 per person or £40 for a family of four. For more information and tickets t: 0845 300 1128 or visit www.childrensociety.org.uk/easter.

Signs of Resurrections – a series of after dinner talks for the Easter Season

The evenings commence with dinner at 7pm on Wednesdays 18 and 25 April; and 2, 9 and 16 May. Speakers include the Very Rev'd Alec Knight, one time Dean of Lincoln, and Bishop Bill Ind of Truro. Apply for a brochure from the Warden St Peter's Bourne by e: warden1@tiscali.co.uk.

Ending Slavery: then and now? A May Day Event for the City of London

1pm, Tuesday 1 May, on the steps of the Royal Exchange, Threadneedle Street with Clare Short MP and Canon Joel Edwards, Director General of the Evangelical Alliance. This is followed by an in-depth discussion at 2pm at St Mary-le-Bow, Cheapside.

For more information visit www.justshare.org.uk or e: JustShare@stmarylebow.org.uk.

MILE Conference: Mission in London's Economy

A conference from a recently formed, independent, ecumenical organisation. Reports from four groups will be presented with opportunities for input and questions. The repeating programme allows participants to drop in and out as time permits. The keynote speaker is the Revd David Helms, Team Leader of Kent Work Place Ministry, who will talk on 'The Prophetic Voice'.

20 May, 9.30am-4pm at Society of Friends, Euston Rd, London NW1. Breakfast, lunch and tea will be provided free of charge to all those attending, so please register if you wish to attend by e: michaelcadent@btinternet.com. Visit www.mile.org.uk for more information.