

EVENTS
JULY 2007

A New Vision for Catholic Mission

Westcott House will host this conference, bringing together a lively mix of priests, scholars and opinion leaders to address current thinking and practice in mission. The conference is intended to engage and resource all involved in Christian ministry and theological mission. See www.london.anglican.org/EventShow_7895 for more information. 17-19 September.

Dalits, Caste and Slavery Today

WallSpace are hosting a new exhibition by Sokari Douglas Camp, The World is Richer, as part of the City of London Festival. A talk will be given by Dalit Theologian, the Revd Dr Peniel Jesudason Rufus on 4 July at All Hallows on the Wall. Visit www.wallspace.org.uk to find out more.

The Aviva Walk London to Breakthrough Breast Cancer

Thousands of men and women will walk 44,000m together, in recognition of the 44,000 people who will be diagnosed with breast cancer this year in the United Kingdom. The walk is 44km, from Richmond Park to Regents Park. 8 September. Visit www.breakthroughwalklondon.org.uk for more information.

July masses at St Paul's

Throughout July the City of London Sinfonia will accompany the mass settings at the Cathedral's 11am Eucharist. Composers include Widor, Langlais and Haydn. See www.london.anglican.org/EventShow_8014 for more information.

Embracing our dying – a day workshop

Most people have experience the loss that follows the death of family and friends. This workshop is an opportunity to reflect on the issues and questions that challenge or unsettle. Led by Dr Katherine Froggatt, Senior Lecturer at the International Observatory for End of Life Care, Lancaster University; and the Revd Paul Atherton, Vicar of St Mark, Bush Hill Park.

23 July, 11am-3.30pm, at St Pancras Church House, 1 Lancing Street NW1 2BA. £10 (£8 for PSALM members). e: psalm@stpancraschurch.org or t: 020 7388 5658.

London Churches Poverty Network - Planning Local Poverty Hearings

Alistair Murray of UNLEASH will present ideas and resources to help churches and projects arrange Local Poverty Hearings during 'The Week of Action on Poverty and Homelessness' in January 2008. News of future training events; sharing good practice; support and encouragement. For more information e: chris.brice@london.anglican.org or t: 020 7932 1121. Monday 16 July, 11am-1pm at Housing Justice, 209 Old Marylebone Road London NW1 5QT.

Football Reaching Out For Africa at the Royal Albert Hall – singers needed

On Sunday 23 September, the charity Support For Africa, is presenting 'Football Reaching Out For Africa', an event to be produced by Major Sir Michael Parker KCVO CBE, with a mass choir of 3000 gospel singers and a host of international football stars and celebrities. They are looking for people to attend but also for people to join the choir. For more information visit www.supportforafrica.com.

Resources for people in ministry at Sheldon (Society of Mary and Martha)

Sheldon specialises in providing resources for people in ministry and/or their spouses, but many resources are open to everyone. All costs quoted at the ministry rate. Cluster of converted farm buildings, 45 acres of grounds with field and woodland walks (and lots of lambs), cosy accommodation, good food, gentle hospitality. www.sheldon.uk.com.

For information contact Sheldon, Dunsford, Exeter EX6 7LE, t: 01647 252752, e: smm@sheldon.uk.com or visit www.sheldon.uk.com.