McKenzie Friend Training Courses - The Zacchaeus 2000 Trust

These one day courses are designed to enable people of any faith or none, already working among deprived families and individuals to support them as a McKenzie Friend when they are facing local authorities, bailiffs or court appearances for debt. There is a legal right to a friend in court won by a man called McKenzie. It will also be of interest to people who are concerned about poverty in the United Kingdom and might not wish to become a volunteer McKenzie Friend.

22 September at St Paul’s Tottenham, N17; 20 October at 38 Ebury Street SW1. £5 (pay on the day). To book and for more information t: 020 7259 0801 or e: admin@z2k.org.

The Marriage Conference

Designed to equip people to lead The Marriage Preparation Course and/or The Marriage Course in their home, church or community. The conference is for anyone looking for a practical, easy to use, skill-based course which is an effective means for strengthening all marriages and a way to reach out to the local community. The speakers will be Nicky & Sila Lee. 28 September at Holy Trinity, Brompton. Visit <http://themarriagecourse.org> for more information.

Join the final mile of the Christian Aid 1,000 mile ‘Cut the Carbon’ March

A number of people from the Diocese will be walking the final mile of the rally on Tuesday 2 October. The final mile starts at Potters Field Park, SE1 and ends with a service at St Paul’s Cathedral at 2pm. Participants are encouraged to take parish banners and placards to identify the various groups.

For further details for joining up with other London Diocesan people at Potter’s Field e: chris.brice@london.anglican.org or t: 020 7932 1121. Further details of Christian Aid’s 1,000 mile march are available on www.christianaid.org.uk. Tickets for St Paul’s service are free, but must be pre-ordered on 020 7523 2258.
