

Come hear how your generous donations to the Diocese of London Lent Appeal 2007 are liberating trafficked girls in India.

The diocese of London Lent Appeal 2007 is supporting the Anti-Trafficking programme of the Church of North India (CNI), which combats trafficking of women and children in south Asia.

CMS has invited inspiration speaker Sanjana Das of CNI to share about the Anti-Trafficking programme and bring you firsthand stories of how your generosity is changing lives.

Venues

CMS tent at Greenbelt Festival,
Cheltenham Racecourse
Friday 24th August to Monday 27th
August 2007

St Peter, Laleham Road, Staines

Afternoon tea – a chance to hear Sanjana and ask your own questions
4pm on Sunday 2nd September 2007

The church is a short walk from Staines station on the Waterloo-Reading line
Before travelling please ring 01784 469 155 to confirm event details

To Be Confirmed: St Paul, Northcroft Road, Ealing

9 am and 11.15am services on Sunday 9th September 2007

The church is a short walk from Northfields Underground Station on the Piccadilly Line
Before travelling please ring 020 8799 3779 to confirm event details

Further details can be found at <http://www.london.anglican.org/Events>

Thank you so much for sharing Jesus and changing lives through the Diocese of London Lent Appeal 2007

| sharing Jesus, changing lives