

EVENTS
JANUARY 2008

Climate Action: Effective Communication Course

This course is for anyone who is keen to get people active on climate change. The day will look at communication in different situations from political lobbying to talking in the street, from answering awkward questions to talking with friends. Work in small groups will help build confidence and ensure that the course meets everyone's needs.

24 January, 10am-4.30pm, at St Ethelburga's Centre for Reconciliation and Peace. For bookings and information contact Talk Action by t: 020 7234 3629 or e: jelliott@talkaction.org. £50 cost per person.

Christian Eschatology and Contemporary Culture Day Conference

A conference from Spring Harvest and King's College for church leaders and members who are passionate about the place of theology in the Church. Featuring leading thinkers and theologians, the programme will unpack the major themes of Christian eschatology including the Second Coming of Christ, the end of the world as we know it, eschatology in the Old and New Testament, the doctrines of heaven and hell and contemporary issues such as art, culture and the environment.

26 January, from 9.30am, at King's College, London. £12 per person.

We have a great high priest
