“The Common Fund reflects a Common Mission”
What is the Common Fund?

The Common Fund is money given by every parish in London to provide, support, and further the work of clergy across the Diocese.

Why is it significant?

It enables the Church to be present throughout London.
We get no direct government funding and very little from the National Church.
It shows the importance of God’s mission for the future.

Where your money goes:

Paying parish clergy, including pension, National Insurance and Council Tax.
Housing for clergy.
Developing lay ministry and supporting parishes.
Training for new priests and existing clergy.

Our success stories

“We are very grateful to other churches who support us through the Common Fund, enabling us to work in the community.”

“We give above our own costs as a way of sharing our financial strength with less wealthy neighbours.”

“All parishes take it seriously, giving more than they would under other systems.”

“We are very grateful to others who support us and share in our ministry in this area. Without realising it, they are touching lives right here.”

“It’s part of sharing God’s grace.”

More about our story

Find out more at: www.london.anglican.org/common-fund
Or follow us on:
Facebook.com/DioceseofLondon
Twitter @DioceseofLondon

Thank you

For sustaining the mission of the Church in word and action.
For your prayers.
For helping to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ to each new generation.
For your generous giving.

Your generosity enables us

To be present in every community, not just in buildings but in people.
To be less reliant on income from our investments, so that more can be released for new mission and ministry.
To do more together than we could ever do alone.