The training programme is demanding spiritually, academically and physically. You will need to be able to ensure that you have adequate time for reading, study, prayer and preparation of course work as well as attending lectures, tutorials, etc. This will continue, to a lesser degree, throughout your ministry. You should be aware of this at this stage of the selection process so that you can satisfy yourself that the appropriate support for you is available in the context of your domestic and personal circumstances.

References

Your Incumbent/Priest-in-Charge will be asked for a reference. Please give the names and addresses of two other people to whom reference may be made in support of your application. One of these should be a member of your parish, but not a member of staff. The other should not be a member of your parish, but should know you well and be able to provide a current reference. Your referees should not be related to you.

SELECTION FOR LICENSED LAY MINISTRY TRAINING

Information for candidates, referees and nominating clergy

Ministry in the Church of England

Candidates must be baptised and episcopally confirmed and regular communicants of the Church of England who are familiar with its traditions and practices. They must complete the necessary disclosure statement in connection with the House of Bishop's Policy on Safeguarding before undergoing the selection procedure.

Vocation

Candidates should be able to speak of their own sense of vocation to ministry and mission, referring both to personal conviction and to the extent to which others have confirmed it. Their sense of vocation should be obedient, realistic and informed.

Faith

Candidates should show an understanding of the Christian faith and a desire to deepen that understanding. They should demonstrate personal commitment to Christ and a capacity to communicate the gospel.

Spirituality and worship

Candidates should show evidence of commitment to a spiritual discipline which involves individual and corporate prayer and worship. Their spiritual practice should be such as to sustain and energise them in their daily lives.

Personality and character

Candidates should be people of integrity who are sufficiently mature and stable to show that they can sustain the demanding role of a minister and to face change and pressure in a flexible and balanced way. They should show the potential to offer wise leadership in the Church community and to some extent beyond it.

Relationships

Candidates should demonstrate self-awareness and self-acceptance as a basis for developing open and healthy personal and pastoral relationships as ministers. They should show ability and willingness to co-operate with other ministers and to work both as team members and as leaders.

Potential for training

Candidates should be capable of undertaking satisfactorily a course of study and ministerial preparation with an open and enquiring mind.
